When you are training your dog you Most Likely Need very enticing, soft, meaty treats. this is especially important if you are trying to change inappropriate behaviors to appropriate ones or are moving into a distracting environment.

Here are some suggestions for training treats for your dogs. Remember if you are doing a lot of training you may have to reduce the dog's evening meal to avoid excess weight gain.

Chicken Chunkers or Four Legs Chicken, Pasta and Vegies Roll available at supermarkets.

Cheeses and Fresh Pasta

Chicken Roll, Black Pudding or other assorted sausages. Look for the Specials.

Cut all treats up into small pieces and combine with some dried dog food and freeze into training size packets . The dried food absorbs the moisture and makes treats easier to deliver

Not all treats are suitable for all dogs. Please consult your vet if you need help choosing treats Suitable for your dog.
